

Title of your full-length research paper

Maciej Wieczór-Retman, Kacper Stojek.

Abstract

A short (up to 250 words) summary of the main contributions of the paper and the context of the research. Full length papers discuss and illustrate methods, challenges, and limitations in the creation, collection, management, access, processing, or analysis of data in humanities research, including standards and formats. These aspects must not necessarily be discussed with reference to a specific dataset (or collection thereof) but, if your paper focusses on particular datasets, we advise to add the dataset metadata under the section ‘Dataset description’. This template provides a general outline for full length papers and authors can adapt the headings and include subheadings as they find appropriate. Please delete or replace the blue text with your own text in black.

keyword 1; keyword 2; lower case except names, max 6

For determining author roles, please use following taxonomy: <https://credit.niso.org/>. Please list the roles for each author.

1 Context and motivation

Describe the context and motivation of your paper.

1.1 In-text citations

This journal uses a style based on the APA system (see <https://openhumanitiesdata.metajnl.com/about/sub>). The following are some basic citation commands in L^AT_EX:

\citet → jensetmcgil
\citet → australiashealth
\citet → shree-a
\citep → fabricius-hansen2012b
\citealp → (eckhoff2018a)
\citealp → (eckhoff2018a; fabricius-hansen2012b; shree-a)

1.1.1 Other simple functions

To add bullet points:

- Some point
- Another point

Or numbered points:

1. Some numbered point
2. Another numbered point

This is an example of footnote¹.

This is a simple table:

Please refer to your table using: Table ??.

To add a figure, upload the figure into the images folder, and then embed it:

To resize the figure:

Please refer to your figures as: Figure ??, Figure ??, etc.

2 Dataset description

Here you can provide, if applicable, information about the dataset(s) whose creation, collection, management, access, processing or analysis have been discussed in this paper, following this schema:

Object name Typically the name of the file or file set in the repository.

Format names and versions E.g., ASCII, CSV, Autocad, EPS, JPEG, Excel, SQL, etc.

Creation dates The start and end dates of when the data was created (YYYY-MM-DD).

Dataset creators Please list anyone who helped to create the dataset (who may or may not be an author of the data paper), including their roles (using and affiliations).

Language Languages used in the dataset (i.e., for variable names etc.).

License The open license under which the data has been deposited (e.g., CC0).

Repository name The name of the repository to which the data is uploaded. E.g., Figshare, Dataverse, etc.

¹This is a footnote

Publication date If already known, the date in which the dataset was published in the repository (YYYY-MM-DD).

3 Method

Describe the methods used in the study.

4 Results and discussion

Describe and discuss the results of the study.

5 Implications/Applications

Provide information about the implications of this research and/or how it can be applied.

Acknowledgements

Please add any relevant acknowledgements to anyone else that assisted with the project in which the data was created but did not work directly on the data itself.

Funding Statement

If the research resulted from funded research please list the funder and grant number here.

Competing interests

If any of the authors have any competing interests then these must be declared. If there are no competing interests to declare then the following statement should be present: The author(s) has/have no competing interests to declare.

Supplementary Files (optional)

Any supplementary/additional files that should link to the main publication must be listed, with a corresponding number, title and option description. Ideally the supplementary files are also cited in the main text. Note: supplementary files will not be typeset so they must be provided in their final form. They will be assigned a DOI and linked to from the publication.
